

Pharmacy Practice Faculty
Ambulatory Care Practice / Student Recruiter
Appalachian College of Pharmacy

Join our mission-driven, student-focused academic community! The Appalachian College of Pharmacy is seeking an innovative and highly motivated pharmacist to join the Department of Pharmacy Practice to expand ambulatory care pharmacy initiatives near campus, enhance student recruitment efforts, teach within our integrated pharmacy curriculum, and collaborate with interdisciplinary faculty. This position offers a unique opportunity to shape the pharmacy workforce of the future by attracting and training the next generation of pharmacists and healthcare leaders.

This member of the academic team will also work closely with the Director of Admissions to develop and implement strategic outreach initiatives to identify, engage, and recruit a diverse and talented pool of applicants to the Doctor of Pharmacy and Doctor of Public Health programs to build a strong pipeline from undergraduate institutions, community colleges, and pre-pharmacy programs.

Qualifications:

- Doctor of Pharmacy degree from a US accredited institution with eligibility for licensure in Virginia
- Strong communication, presentation, and interpersonal skills
- Willingness to travel and work occasional evenings/weekends

Applicants are encouraged to visit our website at www.acp.edu to learn more about the college and our commitment to mission and educational excellence. Please submit your completed application (available at Application), a letter of intent, curriculum vitae, and three references to Human Resources, Appalachian College of Pharmacy, 1060 Dragon Road, Oakwood, Virginia 24631. Electronic submissions may be emailed to HR@acp.edu. Candidate screening will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Appalachian College of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) and certified to operate in Virginia by the State Council for Higher Education. Appalachian College of Pharmacy is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Appalachian College of Pharmacy maintains a drug-free workplace.